General

10 0 1

Chapter 1 by Magdalene

"His name used to be Prodigy Jaxon Dakota.

"He was the star prodigy of Venus, the second greatest city consisting of the Union. He had been their mascot, the person they had bragged about. Until someone had tried to assassinate him. After five years of running, people thought his assassinator had murdered him and he was dead so his name was erased from the history books and databases. But he was still alive and soon found shelter in a poor house in the smallest city in the Union, Pluto.

"He grew up in a family of four, not including himself. When he turned twenty-five, he was ordered to the Pluto army where he became a captain, one of the General's staff. There, he became a star because he still had some of his prodigy genes from nearly ten years before. The Union took note of him and then commanded him to come to Mercury, the largest city. He was trained and then became General of the Army for the Union, one of the best and youngest. He is fighting against the Confederates now.

"His name is General Kota Jax."
